Re: Concerto Day Repertoire list for 2014

This is an updated list of Concerto Day repertoire. We either own or have ready access to these accompaniments. Students are not limited to these pieces, but teachers need to check with Elaine Smith or myself as to the suitability of the work. Teachers will need to track down the parts and scores for pieces not on the list.

Suggestions for ordering parts and scores:

The Chicago Symphony does not loan materials. Please don't ask them. The same can be said for many of the other orchestras in the area but if you have connections, feel free to use them.

Peter Conover 312-294-3245 CSO librarian suggests these sources:

- Educational Music Service 845-469-5790 Elaine has spoken with Don (Fern is also helpful). Sales@emsmusic.com Fax 845-469-5817
Most scores are about $20-25 and each part about $2.25-$3.75
- Boosey and Hawkes 212-358-5300
Fax: 212-358-5307 Att. Rental library (Enrico)
B & H Perusal Dept.(Jack)212-358-5363 will send you concerto to see if it is correct one. Pervis Taylor was also helpful.
- Barbara Schubert suggests ordering scores/parts from Luck's Music Library for the best prices <http://lucksmusic.net> 1-800-348-8749 (Kathleen was helpful)

Advice from Elaine: Check for measure numbers! Kalmus editions seem to have measure numbers. Even though more money it is worth it. It is a good idea to get complete sets.

Many works are available online as .pdf downloads. This involves a certain amount of editing and printing of scores and parts but it can be a useful option. Please check the materials carefully as there may be missing or illegible parts, or pages. Some of the editions are not ideal. Also check the copyright information. I can assist with this process. The best free site is the Petrucci library: <http://imslp.org/> but you can search for other possibilities, free and/or nominal. "Score Exchange" www.scoreexchange.com for one.

IMSLP is a good source for practice parts for orchestra members as well, we will attempt to post links to relevant pages when we know what repertoire will be played this year.

Thank you to Dan McDonald, Betsy Ko, Charlotte Lehnhoff, Susan Sigal, Andrea Sivertson, Elaine Smith, and John Tredon for help in compiling this list. Also thanks to the MTHP membership, Barbara Schubert, Paula Golden and all others who have loaned material for Concerto Day.

We look forward to making music with your students on Concerto Day.
