

Contemporary Workshop – Saturday, December 14, 2024, 3:00 PM

Music Teachers of Hyde Park's Contemporary Workshop is Saturday, December 14, 2024 beginning at 3:00 pm. Place TBD. We are pleased to announce that composer and teacher Ilya Levinson is our clinician and the workshop is LIVE. Please see information about him on the Columbia College Chicago web site where he teaches <https://www.colum.edu/academics/faculty/detail/ilya-levinson.html> and www.ilyalevinsonmusic.com

Students playing any instrument are welcome to play.

Ilya Levinson will discuss your performance from a composer's perspective and give a short presentation on conducting. Students will learn to conduct basic patterns and identify time signatures listening to music.

Students are encouraged* to play a piece from 20th or 21st century since this is a contemporary music workshop. Debussy and Ravel of course included as they lived into the 20th century as did so many more composers! Students of all ages and levels are welcome. (* If music from another century they are also welcome to play.)

Applications deadline December 1 and send to:

Elaine B. Smith

5638 S. Blackstone Avenue

Chicago, IL 60637

or

Email: ebspiano@gmail.com

$20 per student. Three students per teacher. List more students and you will be contacted December 5 if there is room for them to play. ONE check should be made to Music Teachers of Hyde Park by the teacher (not parent) or you may pay on our web site, www.mthp.org. If you pay on the web site email Elaine Smith the information that you have paid.

When filling out form you may list more students and if there is available time they will be welcome to play. You will be notified by December 5 and told if there is room for extra students. All students, teachers and parents are invited to observe the workshop.

Students may use music. There will be a music stand.

If questions students/parents should contact their teacher.
